

Week 11 – Results from the Rescheduled Week at Hanover

All,

I'm proud of the tour this week as an amazing 21 members made it out last weekend when Hanover took over as the venue after the Masters was forced to be rescheduled. Results are below. Little Buddy and Matt D take the 4 points and the co-victory at net 69. We also had a tie for 3rd with El Presidoushka and the Newminator posting net 70's. Eddie's lead is cut to 3 in the order but things are very tight up top. Additional events of the week were as follows:

Champions League 4-ball:

CFD and P-tah defeat The Sheriff and NOBODY 1 Up. The unthinkable happened this week as Mullet no-showed on his partner in the 4-ball comp. Fair play to Jimmy as he went after it on his own and nearly won it for his team. Jimmy gave it a valiant effort and at one point Jimmy was up 4, but with the match all tied after 17, Jimmy succumbed to the inevitable. Too bad Tommy wasn't there,

As Jimmy could have used his help on one or two holes. Oh well says his opponents. The MSDE has subsequently ruled that Tommy be docked 2 OOM points (not yet reflected in the below) for the heinous crime committed by sir Mullet.

In the other match (This from MG

Los and Rich defeated Muthu and Cano (1 UP). With 3 behind and three holes to play, Cano won two holes in a row and took the match to the 18th where Los got a par and halved the hole for a win. It was an interesting match and the better team won. Good luck to Los and Rich.

Lastly an intriguing note from the Commissioner. I let it stand on its own merits...

The development of the Ladies YGS took another major step forward this past weekend. EC members DiCo and The Commissioner played a match Saturday afternoon at Mercer Oaks East with respective partners. Both games were close, with the ladies match finishing all square after Barbara DiCo rallied from 2 down with 2 to play in her grudge match with MB. Beer and Bloody's consumption exceeded standard YGS intake rates - in fact MB had to be cut-off on the 16th green after a slight fall. Commish and DiCo had a real gunfight - both going out in 39's before a late putting collapse by DiCo allowed The Commissioner to close the match 3 and 1.

Chief Strategist and Tour Commissioner commented on the inclusion of ladies on the YGS saying 'The recent acceptance of former wrestlers onto the tour shows the tour is becoming more open minded towards minorities - establishing a ladies tour over the next few years is inevitable and I see this as a key growth pillar for the YGS'.
