

Week 14 – Results for a Fescue Filled Round on the East Course

GoTT,

I'm not sure why I reference the fescue this week as no one in my group really spent too much time in it, and judging by the overall scoring picture there were not too many of you spending any time in it at all. Well, maybe Little Buddy did, but that's a story for later I guess.

Finally we had a week go by where you didn't have to go lower than net 64 to win. That was great news for this weeks winner. Los went out and just fell short of breaking 80 (which inexplicably he claims to have never done before). His umpteenth career 80 is just good enough for his first victory of the season as his net 67 just barely beat out the streaking El Presidoushka whose 85 netted him a mere net 68 and yet another trip to the podium. Third place was an absolute logjam with 3 guys posting net 70's. Mullet did it with a gross 83, Link-me did it with a gross 85, and the Newminator did it with a gross 96. All 3 men grab an important bonus point and another knock on the podium tally board (which is in dire need of an update now that we have reached the 1/2 way point of the campaign.

Hard luck went to yours truly (thanks to a missed 3 footer on 18...ugh). and Ed L who shot a 105 net 71. Its always good to shoot your handicap or better.

Now for the not so good. A couple of guys smashed back to earth after having been playing some good if not stellar golf. After 2 weeks of playing in the stratosphere Dave McC was back visiting triple digits and I'm sure a bit of the tall grass this week with his 112 net 78. This was not however the worst net performance of the week. That went to Little Buddy and his whopping 101 net 80. In fairness that can be middle of the lower half some weeks, but this week its the basement.

In other news we have our second semi-finalists in the Champion's League 4-ball matchplay event. Those finalist are Mullet and The Sheriff who took out CFD and P-tah by the score of 3 and 2 last Friday. A recap of the match from CFD is as foillows: You won't believe this... Mullet/Jimmy (Mr 29 handicap) vs CFD/Pe-tah:

Down 1 after 2, Jimmy pars 3 (net birdie) to even match. Down 1 after 4, Jimmy pars 5 to even match. Down 2 after 8, Jimmy pars 9 and 10 (net birdies) to even match. Down 1 after 11, Jimmy birdies 12 (net eagle), bogies 13 (net par), birdies 14, pars 15 (net birdie) to go up 3. Tommy didn't win one hole (but managed to halve 17 to secure the win 3 and 2).

Thanks CFD... This after Tommy's no show cause a rescheduling of the match in the first place. I guess Jimmy didn't need him after all.

Where there you have it boys... onto the Makefield classic. Good luck boys.

To the Tour!
