

Week 23 & 24 – Scoring Reports for Cranbury and Tamarack

Gentlemen of the tour,

Two very different weeks at 2 very different venues but in both cases we got some decent golf and 4 guys on the podium, but no one was lucky enough to be there both times. This week at Tamarack East on a very wet track it was Tim-E-Way throwing down a tidy 75 gross, 66 net. It had to be fun playing with him that day as we do not get many rounds like that on tour. It was Tim's third victory on the season and the result had put him in the top 10 in the current OOM. In second place was the surging Sir Lancelot who got into the low 90's again. This time a 91 net 69 as he continues to enjoy his best campaign in a while. Third place went to OOM leader Eddie and The Faucet. Both men posting net 71's. Eddie with his 86 and The Faucet with an 89. Eddie's lead is now 6 points over Little Buddy and 9 over Mullet so things could get interesting after this week's classic. As the weeks wear on though the second tier is in jeopardy of becoming an afterthought. Skipper, Newman, XLP and the rest of the top 10 are now 14-19 points back. This is the week to make that move.

Cranbury week had a completely different set of offenders in the best attended week since the Open Day. We got 26 rounds in over Labor day weekend but there were 4 that stood above the rest. The winners 2 weeks ago were Tony C and Wilks. Both posting tidy net 66 scores on the rather accommodating track that week. Tony with an 83 and Wilks with an 86. Not far behind them were DiCo with an 86 net 69 and Pee-tah 95 net 69. Frustratingly, poor Little Buddy was hard luck 4th with a net 70 at Cranbury and I'm sure was left mumbling about some Put missed along the way.

Good luck to all in this week's important Classic on Saturday, and especially good luck to those of you pursuing the glory that is a major championship victory in the 54 hole YGS Masters. Being played for the first time in the Modern Era on 3 local courses it promises to be a very interesting and entertaining affair.
