

Week 6 – Results from The Heron Glen Classic

GoTT,

Sorry for the delay in updating the results and standings. Work is getting in the way, and this looks to be the case for the foreseeable future. Heron Glen offered up an amazing venue and a spectacular day for the second classic of the season a week and a half ago. More spectacular though was the play of the Skipper (at least for 2 holes anyway). Unless I missed it Bobby is the first to hole a shot from more than 20 yards out this year as he holed a wedge shot from about 50 yards on number 4 11th hole for his first ever Eagle! Johnny was so excited he could be heard saying "did you see that" to everyone within 2 holes of the group. Amazingly, on the ensuing par 3 Bobby nearly knocked his tee shot in the hole for his first ever hole on one... ahh if only he could have played like that all day!

The guys that did play like that all day took home some big OOM points for their trouble. First on the list was Mullet. Now while I want to give him his due for shooting a toasty 82 net 67 and besting a big classic field, I also need to chop him down for leaving his original 3-some which included match bracket mate The Dyke to play 30 minutes earlier in the day. Terrible precedent there Mullet. Gotta use those Classics to get matches in where you can... Now that the scolding is over, congrats on your big day. Mullet never lets a season go by without a classic victory it seems.

Second place went to the defending OOM champion Little Buddy who made his first noise of the 2011 campaign after his breakout season last year. While our Mets may be on the skids LD is not about to let that happen to his game. He shot a 90 net 68 to finish second by a single stroke. Now where on the course do you think he left that stroke???

Third place was a battle as 4 guys were within 2 strokes of those bonus points, but it was Link-me who cashed them in. The man is off to a flying start as almost every time out this year he has found the podium... Can you say handicap adjustment coming soon! Link-me shoots an 86 net 70 to stave off Tim-e-way, DiCo, Newman, and Bruni.

After a week of show points for the boys who went to AC and who played their first 4-ball matches (BTW MG and Crano spanked Swanny and Scott L.6 and 5 at the Bog) and otherwise hit the course this week we have a logjam at the top of the order. With 8 guys within 4 points of the leader, things are very bunched up there, if you know what I mean...

Good luck to all as the tour returns to the home course for a regular event this week. 2 more Champion's League matches will go down as we continue to fill out the quarter final brackets... good luck to all, and if you have not paid your entry fee yet please get it to me the next time you see me.
